From the Secretary, Department of Rural Development, Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India D.O. Letter No. Q-13016/01/2017-DISHA addressed to Chief Secretary, Government of Tamil Nadu, dated 21.10.2019.

ORDER:-

In the letter read above, the Secretary, Department of Rural Development, Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India has stated that the District Development Coordination and Monitoring Committees (DISHA) were constituted during June, 2016 under the Chairmanship of Members of Parliament in all the Districts to ensure better coordination among the elected representatives and to promote efficient and time-bound development of the Districts with active participation of all States. The effectiveness of District Development Coordination and Monitoring Committees (DISHA) is growing day by day.

2. The Secretary, Department of Rural Development, Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India has also stated that in order to address the issues relates to DISHA at State Level, a State Nodal Officer(SNO) for DISHA initiative of Government of India is to be designated at the State level. The role of the State Nodal Officer(SNO) is very critical in ensuring many aspects such as timely conduct of meetings in Districts, timely submission of proceedings of meetings, resolution of issues highlighted during the meetings; and monitoring of the action items decided during the meetings. The State Nodal Officer(SNO) not only would be responsible for monitoring all the activities connected with the DISHA initiative of Government of India in the State but also would facilitate the Meetings in all the Districts in every quarter under the able leadership of the respective appointed Chairperson. This would enable the Ministry of Rural Development in coordinating with the State Governments in an efficient manner for taking stock of the developmental activities in the State.
