Compensation payable to a licensee.

5. The compensation payable to a licensee, on whom an order has been served under section 4 or whose undertaking has been taken over before the commencement of this Act, shall be determined under any one of the Basis A, B, and C specified below, as may be chosen under section 8.

(1) Basis A.—(i) The compensation payable under this basis shall be an amount equal to twenty times the average net annual profit of the undertaking during a period of five consecutive account years immediately preceding the vesting date.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, the net annual profit shall be determined in the manner laid down in Part A or Part B, as the case may be, of Schedule I.

(ii) This basis shall not apply to an undertaking which has not been supplying electricity for five consecutive account years immediately preceding the vesting date.

(2) Basis B.—The compensation payable under this basis shall be the aggregate value of all the shares constituting the share capital of the undertaking, reckoned as shown below :—

(a) In the case of shares issued on or before the 31st March 1946, the value of each share shall be reckoned at its average value as arrived at from the quotations for the shares as given in the official list of the Madras Share Market on the 15th day of each month and where such market was closed on that day, the quotations on the next working day, during the period of three years commencing on the 1st April 1946 and ending on the 31st March 1949 :

Provided that this clause shall not apply if any one or more of the different classes of shares constituting the capital of the undertaking were not being regularly quoted in such market during the period of three years aforesaid, or if such quotations during the whole of any one of those three years were not based on actual transactions in such year.

(b) In the case of shares issued on or before the 31st March 1946, if clause (a) does not apply but there have been bona fide transfers in each of the different classes of shares in every one of the three years aforesaid, and such transfers have been duly registered in the appropriate books of the licensee, the value of each share of each such class shall be reckoned at one-third of the aggregate of its three annual average values for the three years, the average value for each year being determined from the transactions in that year.

(c) Where the amounts called for in respect of any share referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) are in arrears, the value of such share shall be taken to be a sum which bears to its value as reckoned under clause (a) or clause (b), as the case may be, the same proportion as the amount paid up bears to the full amount payable in respect of the share.

(d) In the case of shares issued after the 31st March 1946, their aggregate value shall be taken to be the amount actually paid in respect thereof (including the premium, if any), together with an additional sum by way of solatium, calculated at the rate of two per cent for every completed year preceding the vesting date on the amount so paid which was in existence during the whole of such year as shown in the licensee's books :

Provided that no part of such amount shall be entitled to a solatium exceeding ten per cent thereof.

Explanation.—This basis shall not apply unless clause (a) or clause (b) is applicable.

(3) Basis C.—The compensation payable under this basis shall be the aggregate value of the amounts specified below :—

(i) the book value of all completed works in beneficial use pertaining to the undertaking and handed over to the Government (excluding works paid for by consumers) less depreciation calculated in accordance with Schedule II;

(ii) the book value of all works in progress handed over to the Government, excluding works paid for by consumers or prospective consumers;

(iii) the book value of all stores including spare parts handed over to the Government and in the case of used stores and spare parts, such sum as may be decided upon by mutual agreement between the Government and the licensee;

(iv) the book value of all other fixed assets in use on the vesting date and handed over to the Government less depreciation calculated in accordance with Schedule II;

(v) the book value of all plant and equipment existing on the vesting date but no longer in use owing to wear and tear or to obsolescence, to the extent such value has not been written off in the books of the licensee less depreciation calculated in accordance with Schedule II;

(vi) the book value of all intangible assets, to the extent such value has not been written off in the books of the licensee;

(vii) the amount due from consumers in respect of every hire- purchase agreement referred to in section 6 (2) (a) (ii) less a sum which bears to the difference between the total amount of the instalments and the original cost of the material or equipment, the same proportion as the amount due bears to the total amount of the instalments;

(viii) any amount paid actually by the licensee in respect of every contract referred to in section 6 (2) (a) (iii);

(ix) an additional sum by way of solatium—

[1][(a) in case the licensee is a person licensed under Part II of the Electricity Act, at the rate of ten per cent on the value referred to in sub-clause (ii), at the rate of five per cent on the value referred to in sub-clause (iii) and at the rate specified in the licence in respect of compulsory purchase, or where no rate is specified in the licence, at fifteen per cent on the values referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (iv) ;]

(b) in case the licensee is a person who has obtained sanction under section 28 of that Act to engage in the business of supplying electrical energy, at the rate of ten per cent on the values referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (iv) and at the rate of five per cent on the values referred to in sub-clauses (ii) and (iii).

1 This clause was substituted for the original clause (a) by section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Electricity undertakings (Acquisition) Amendment Act, 1957 (Tamil Nadu Act VI of 1957) deemed to have come into force on the 13th October 1954.

Explanation.—(1) For the purposes of Basis C, the book value of any fixed asset means its original costs, and shall comprise—

(i) the purchase price paid by the licensee for the asset, including the cost of delivery and all charges properly incurred in erecting and bringing the asset into beneficial use as shown in the books of the undertaking;

(ii) interest charges on capital expenditure incurred from borrowed money and shown in the books of the undertaking as properly attributable to the asset up to the date of bringing it into beneficial use, at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum;

(iii) cost of supervision actually incurred, but not exceeding fifteen per cent of the amount referred to in paragraph (i).

(2) Where any asset was acquired after the expiry of the period to which the latest annual account relates, or where no annual account has to be rendered under the Electricity Act, the book value of the assets shall be such sum as may be decided upon by mutual agreement between the Government and the licensee.

Vesting of the undertaking or assets.

6. (1) If compensation is payable in respect of an undertaking under Basis A or Basis B, all property belonging to the undertaking including fixed assets, cash , securities, investments, documents and the like and all its rights, liabilities and obligations as on the vesting date, shall vest or shall be deemed to have vested in the Government:

Provided that liabilities and obligations not incurred in a bona fide manner shall not vest or be deemed to have vested in the Government—

(i) in so far as they are in excess of the value on the vesting date of the corresponding assets, if any, vesting or deemed to have vested in the Government; or

(ii) where there are no corresponding assets which vest or are deemed to have vested in the Government.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, "undertaking" includes every business carried on by the licensee, the funds of which form part of the funds of the licensee.

(2) (a) If compensation is payable in respect of an undertaking under Basis C, only the property, rights, liabilities and obligations specified herein shall vest or be deemed to have vested in the Government on the vesting date—

(i) all the fixed assets of the licensee and all the documents relating to the undertaking ;

(ii) all the rights, liabilities and obligations of the licensee under hire-purchase agreements, if any, for the supply of materials or equipment made bona fide before the vesting date ;

(iii) all the rights, liablities and obligations of the licensee under any other contract entered into bonafide before the vesting date not being a contract relating to the borrowing or lending of money.

(b) All the assets specified in clause (a) (i) shall vest or shall be deemed to have vested in the Government free from any debts, mortgages or similar obligations of the licensee or attaching to the undertaking :

Provided that such debts, mortgages or obligations shall attach or shall be deemed to have attached to the compensation payable under this Act for the assets.

(3) In the case of all undertakings which vest or are deemed to have vested in the Government under this Act, the licence granted or the sanction given for the supply of electricity shall be deemed to have been terminated on the vesting date and all the rights, liabilities and obligations of the licensee under any agreement to supply electricity entered into before that date shall devolve or shall be deemed to have devolved on the Government:

Provided that where any such agreement is not in conformity with the rates and conditions of supply approved by the Government and in force on the vesting date, the agreement shall be voidable or shall be deemed to have been voidable at the option of the Government.

(4) In respect of any undertaking to which section 4 applies or any undertaking taken over, it shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been lawful for the Government, after removing any obstruction that may be or might have been offered, to take possession of the entire undertaking or, as the case may be, of the fixed assets and of all documents relating to the undertaking which the Government may require, or required for carrying it on.

Appointment of a sole representative.

7. (1) Every licensee may, within three months of the receipt of an order under section 4, sub-section (1), intimating the vesting date or, in the case of an undertaking taken over, within three months of the commencement of this Act, appoint an individual who may be the managing agent or a director or an officer of the licensee or [1][any other individual] to act as his sole and accredited representative in connexion with the handing over of the undertaking or the fixed assets, as the case may be, to the Government and performing on behalf of the licensee the functions hereinafter specified.

(2) Where the licensee is a company registered under *the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (Central Act VII of 1913), the appointment of the accredited representative shall be made by the shareholders of the company at a meeting specially convened for the purpose.

(3) Nothing in the foregoing sub-section shall be deemed to require a licensee of an undertaking taken over, who has appointed an individual as his sole and accredited representative, to make a fresh appointment after the commencement of this Act; and the said representative shall be deemed for all purposes to be the accredited representative appointed under the foregoing sub-sections.

(4) Where the accredited representative resigns or dies or becomes incapable of acting or is in the opinion of the Government, incompetent or dishonest or where the appointment of such representative is set aside or declared void by competent authority, the Government shall call upon the licensee, to appoint within six weeks, [2][another individual] as his accredited representative.

(5) The remuneration of, and the expenditure incurred by, the accredited representative shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, payable from the compensation deposited or deemed to have been deposited under this Act and shall have and shall be deemed always to have had priority over all other debts and liabilities.

(6) All assurances conveyed, and all statements made, by such representative (inclusive of a representative whose appointment is subsequently set aside or declared void by competent authority) shall be binding on the licensee.

(7) Where the licensee does not appoint an individual to act as his sole and accredited representative under sub-section (1) or sub-section (4), the functions hereinafter assigned to the accredited representative shall be performed by the licensee; and all references in the rest of this Act to the accredited representative shall be construed as references to the licensee and any reference to a period of time to be reckoned from the date of appointment of the accredited representative shall, in such a case, be reckoned from the last date on which such accredited representative could have been appointed.

Choice of basis of compensation.

8. (1) Within one month of his appointment, or such further time as may be granted by the Government, the accredited representative shall intimate to the Government in writing which basis of compensation, A, B or C, shall be adopted in respect of the undertaking.

(2) The choice of the basis of compensation once intimated to the Government shall not be open to revision except with their concurrence.

(3) Where no choice has been intimated on behalf of the undertaking within the time allowed by sub-section (1), the Government shall declare the basis under which compensation will be paid for the undertaking and that basis shall be binding on the licensee as if the choice had been duly made in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

(4) Where in respect of an undertaking taken over, the accredited representative has intimated to the Government which basis of compensation, A, B or C, should be adopted in respect of the undertaking, such intimation shall be deemed to have been made under this section and is hereby declared not open to revision except with the concurrence of the Government.

Effect of transactions not bonafied.

9. Where the Government are of opinion that any licensee has on or after the 1st October 1947, disposed of any fixed asset whether by way of sale, exchange, gift, lease or otherwise or incurred capital expenditure otherwise than in the normal course of events with a view to benefit unduly the licensee or some other person and thereby caused loss to the Government as succeeding owners of the undertaking, the Government shall be and shall be deemed always to have been entitled to deduct from the compensation payable to the licensee under this Act, an amount which they consider or considered to be the loss sustained by them:

Provided that notice of the intention to make such deduction shall be or shall have been given to the licensee within one year from the vesting date.

Deductions from the Compensation.

10. (1) The Government shall be and shall be deemed always to have been entitled to deduct the following sums from the compensation payable under this Act to a licensee :—

(a) the amount, if any, already paid in advance by way of compensation ;

(b) the amount, if any, specified in section 9 ;

(c) the amount due, if any, from the licensee to the Government [1][or the Board] for the energy supplied by the Govrenment [1][or the Board] before the vesting date ;

(d) all other amounts and arrears of interest, if any, thereon due from the licensee to the Government [1][or the Board] except loans and arrears of interest, if any, thereon ;

(e) the amount, if any, equivalant to the loss sustained by the Government by reason of any property or rights belonging to the undertaking not having been handed over to the Government, the amount of such loss being deemed to be—

(i) in cases where compensation is payable under Basis A or Basis B, the market value on the vesting date of such property or rights, together with any income which might have been realized by the Government if the property or rights had been handed over on the vesting date ; and

(ii) in cases where compensation is payable under Basis C, the amount by which the market value of such property or rights exceeds the compensation payable therfor under this Act, together with any income which might have been realized as aforesaid.

(2) In addition to the deductions specified above the Government shall also be and be deemed always to have been entitled to make the following deductions :—

(a) in cases where the compensation is payable under Basis A or Basis B, any sum which during a period not exceeding three consecutive account years immediately before the vesting date has been distributed as profits, but is not correctly so distributable ;

(b) in cases where the compensation is payable under Basis C—

(i) the amount of all loans due from the licensee to the Government [1][and the Board] and arrears of interest, if any, thereon ;

(ii) a portion of the amount of solatium bearing the same proportion to the total amount of solatium, as the amount of all loans due to the Government [1][and the Board] from the licensee on the vesting date bears to the aggregate of—

(a) the paid up share capital of the licensee not being a local authority, or the value of the capital assets as shown in the capital account of the undertaking in the case of a licensee being a local authority,

(b) his debenture capital, and:

(c) the amount of all loans due to the Government [1][and the Board] as aforesaid ;

(iii) all sums paid by consumers by way of security deposit and arrears of interest due thereon on the vesting date in so far as they have not been paid over by by the licensee to the Government, less the amounts

[1]These words were inserted by section 3 (ii) of the Tamil Nadu Electricity Supply Undertakings (Acquisition) Amendment Act, 1969 (Tamil Nadu Act 11 of 1969), which was deemed to have come into force on the 1st July 1957.

which according to the books of the licensee are due from the consumers to the licensee for energy supplied by him before that date ;

(iv) all advances from consumers and prospective consumers, and all sums which have been or ought to be set aside to the credit of the consumers' fund in so far as such advances or sums have not been paid over by the licensee to the Government ;

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, 'consumers' fund' shall, in the case of the undertaking of a licensee being a local authority, mean the amount referred to as such in the bulk supply agreement or, where no such reference has been made in the bulk supply agreement, the net profits of the undertaking remaining after effecting the appropriations to the general funds of the local authority in accordance with the terms of the said agreement. In the case of the undertaking of a licensee other than a local authority, for any account year prior to the date on which the Sixth Schedule to the Electricity Supply Act came into force, it shall mean the amount referred to as such in the bulk supply agreement and, for any account year on and from the said date, it shall mean the amount specified in paragraph II (1) of the said Schedule as the amount to be set apart for distribution to consumers ;

(v) all deposits made by, and all sums due to the staff transferred to the Government on account of Provident Fund or other beneficial schemes, in so far as such deposits or sums have not been paid over by the licensee to the Government, less the amounts which the Government are satisfied are due to the licensee from the members of the staff so transferred ;

Provided that no deduction shall be made in pursuance of paragraph (v), in so far as the deposits or sums aforesaid may be in the custody of trustees under a valid deed of trust.

(3) In the case referred to in the foregoing proviso, the Government shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had power to require the trustees to transfer the funds with them, and the securities and other properties, if any, in which the same may have been invested, in so for as they may relate to the staff transferred to the Government ; and the trustees shall be completely discharged in respect of all claims to, or enforceable against, the funds, securities and other properties so transferred.

Manner of payment or deposit of compensation.

11. (1) The compensation due to a licensee under this Act shall be paid or deposited in cash, as hereinafter provided in this section.

(2) Within four months from the vesting date in the case of an undertaking which vests in the Government in pursuance of an order under section 4, sub-section (1), and as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act in the case of an undertaking taken over, the Government shall estimate roughly the compensation payable to the licensee under this Act.

(3) Three-fourths of the amount as so estimated shall be paid by the Government to the licensee, where it is a local authority after deducting any amount paid, whether before or after the commencemnt of this Act, as or towards the compensation payable and the amounts referred to in section 10.

(4) In the case of any other licensee, the Government shall deposit in the Reserve Bank of India or any other Bank chosen by the Government for the purpose (which Reserve or other Bank is hereinafter referred to as the Bank) three-fourths of the amount as estimated under sub-section (2), after deducting therefrom the amounts referred to in section 10.

Explanation.—Where the amount to be paid or deposited under sub-section (3) or this sub-section is equal to or less than the amount to be deducted therefrom as aforesaid, no payment or deposit need be made under sub-section (3) or this sub-section.

(5) Nothing in sub-section (2) or sub-section (4) shall require the Government to estimate roughly the compensation payable to a licensee under this Act or to deposit in the Bank three-fourths of the amount as so estimated after deducting therefrom the amounts referred to in section 10, in a case where, in respect of an undertaking taken over, the Government have, before the commencement of this Act, estimated roughly the compensation payable to the licensee and have deposited in the Bank three-fourths of the amount as so estimated after deducting therefrom the amounts referred to in section 10 ; and the estimate and the deposit made by the Government in any such case shall be deemed for all purposes to be an estimate and a deposit made under sub-section (2) and sub-section (4), respectively.

(6) (a) Within one year from the date on which the compensation was estimated under sub-section (2), the Government shall determine the amount of compensation payable in respect of the undertaking and pay to the licensee or deposit in the Bank the balance left from the amount aforesaid after deducting therefrom (a)the amounts referred to in section 10, and (b) the payment or deposit previously made under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) as the case may be.

(b) Nothing in clause (a) shall require the Government to determine the amount of compensation payable in respect of the undertaking or to make a deposit in a Bank in any case where in respect of an undertaking taken over, the Government have determined the amount of compensation payable in respect of the undertaking and have deposited in the Bank the balance left from the amount aforesaid after deducting therefrom the amounts referred to in section 10 and the deposit previously made or deemed to have been made under sub-section(4); and the determination and the deposit shall in such a case be deemed to have been made under clause (a).
