

ABSTRACT

Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam 2011 - Transferring the Administrative Control of Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension from the Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms to Additional Chief Secretary / Commissioner of Revenue Administration - Orders issued.

Revenue [LR I (2)]Department

G.O.(Ms) No.86

Dated : 20.02.2014

Read:

1. From the Principal Secretary to the Government, Finance (Resources - II) Department, Chennai-9 D.O. letter No.50753/ Resources - II / 2013-1, dated 26.09.2013.
2. From the Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms Ref. No.J1/9222/2013 (L.Ref), dated 17.10.2012 and 8.11.2013.

ORDER:

There has been a large increase in the number of beneficiaries in all the Social Security Pension Schemes including Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension component of Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, taking the total from 23.68 lakhs during March, 2011 to 36.56 lakhs during July 2013. Further, it is seen that the reporting of figures of Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension beneficiaries shows a lot of variance from month to month. Booking of Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension beneficiaries' expenditure under different heads of account is also seen changed then and there in various districts leading to either excess drawal or excess balance funds in different heads in different districts.

2. To enable better administrative, accounting and monitoring systems to be put in place, it is essential that all Social Security Pensions of Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension, including the Old Age Pension Component under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, are brought under one Head of Department.

3. The Government have, hence, decided to transfer the Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam being administered by Commissioner of Land Reforms to the Commissioner of Revenue Administration, thus bringing all pension schemes under one Head of Department - viz Commissioner of Revenue Administration.

4. The Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms, in the reference cited, suggested that monthly pension to the members during their Temporary incapacitation due to HIV / AIDS, Cancer, T.B. Dialysis, Upper limb and lower limb fracture, neurological problems, heart diseases, etc and grant to orphan children of the former members who died due to HIV, which is now given from the Old Age Pension head of account, may be paid from 'Other specific schemes' Account on transfer of the Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam to be administered by Commissioner of Revenue Administration.

5. Further, the Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms has, in her letter, pointed out the need to use the data base created under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam effectively and to continue to maintain the web - based expenditure system under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, expand its scope and enable comprehensive monitoring of Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam as a whole.

6. After careful examination, the Government accepts the proposal of Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms. The Government hereby directs that-

- i. The Administrative control with regard to both Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension component under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam is transferred from the Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms to the Additional Chief Secretary / Commissioner of Revenue Administration with effect from the financial year 2014-15.
- ii. For both Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension under the Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, the Additional Chief Secretary / Commissioner of Revenue Administration will thenceforth be the disbursing, monitoring and controlling officer.
- iii. The District Collectors are directed to merge the Old Age Pension and Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Component of Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam with the existing seven Pension Schemes and to send the progress report to the Additional Chief Secretary / Commissioner of Revenue Administration.
- iv. For the other categories under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, i.e., Educational Assistance, Marriage Assistance, Natural Death, Accidental Death, Funeral Expenses, Monthly Pension to the members under Temporary incapacitation, Grant to orphan child, will continue to be implemented by Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms as usual.

- v. Monthly pension to members during their Temporary incapacitation period and grant to orphans whose parents died due to HIV is thenceforth to be paid from the relevant head of account dealt with by Land Reforms department for 'Other Specific Schemes' (Education, Marriage, etc) under General, Special Component Sub Plan, Tribal Sub Plan as the case may be.
 - vi. The data base created under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam and web-based expenditure system are to be monitored and managed by the Principal Secretary/ Commissioner of Land Reforms.
 - vii. Linking and integrating data base and expenditure systems between Additional Chief Secretary / Commissioner of Revenue Administration and Principal Secretary / Commissioner of Land Reforms is to be ensured to avoid duplication. National Information Centre (NIC) shall prepare a software for data integration and process flow application to sanction the pension. Aadhaar number will be seeded in the data base through State Resident Data Hubs (SDRH) to unify data and avoid duplication.
7. The expenditure under Temporary Incapacitation and Grant to orphan under Chief Minister's Uzhavar Pathukappu Thittam, with effect from 1.4.2014, is to be debited to the following head of account as the case may be:-
