G.O.[Ms] No.540, Revenue [LR.I] Department, dated 19.9.05.

ORDER:

In the Government Order read above, the Government have launched the Chief Minister's Farmers Security Scheme for providing financial assistance to the agricultural labourers, small and marginal farmers and their family members in order to provide social security to them. The scheme has come into effect from 15.8.2005.

2. For the smooth implementation of the Chief Minister's Farmer Security Scheme the following orders are hereby issued:-

- (1) The Commissioner / Director of Land Reforms, the Special Deputy Collectors [PGRC] and Tahsildars [DRS] shall be incharge of implementation of the scheme at the State, District and Taluk level respectively. For implementation of the scheme, the above authorities are designated as Special Officer [Chief Minister's Farmers Security Scheme], Special Deputy Collector [Social Security Scheme] and Special Tahsildar [Social Security Scheme] respectively. However these officers and the officers who will be appointed in the posts newly created in the following paragraph shall continue to be incharge of their existing duties and responsibilities. The overall supervision of the scheme at State and District level has already been entrusted with Special Commissioner and Commissioner of Revenue Administration and District Collectors respectively in the Government Order cited.

- (2) Sanction is accorded for creation of the following posts for a period of one year from the date of issue of orders:
