The Director of Land Reforms and the Special Commissioner and Commissioner of Revenue Administration and the Special Commissioner and Commissioner of Land Reforms have suggested certain amendments to the ad-hoc rules issued to the post of Assistant Commissioner (Land Reforms) not included in the cadre of Deputy Collectors in the Tamil Nadu Civil Service. The Government, after careful consideration, have proposed to accept the recommendation of Director of Land Reforms to count the period of deputation of Superintendents in the office of the Land Tribunal for the purpose of qualification reckoning eight years service in the cadre of Superintendent and to modify the existing requirement of a minimum service of two years as Superintendent in the office of the Assistant Commissioner (Land Reforms) into two years as Superintendent in the office of the Assistant Commissioner (Land Reforms) or in the Office of the Land Tribunal. The other suggestions made by Special Commissioner and Commissioner of Revenue Administration and Special Commissioner and Commissioner of Land Reforms are not acceptable to Government.
