Exclusion of Certain villages

ANNEXURE – C

Jurisdiction – Manaparai Municipality – Exclusion of Villages of Usilampatti, Kannudaiyanpatti and Kalingapatti from the limits of Manaparai Municipality – confirmation – ordered.

RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND LOCAL ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.1059 Dated 19.4.74
Read:

1. G.O.Ms.No. 120 RDLA, dated 21.1.74
2. From the Chairman, Municipal Council, Manaparai letter No. Nil dated 3.12.73 and 5.3.74
3. From the Villagers of Kannudaiyanpatti and Usilampatti letter dated Nil.
4. From the All party Committee, Manaparai patition dated 4.3.74

ORDER:

In G.O.Ms.No. 120, RDLA, dated 21.1..74 proposals for exclusion of villages of Usilampatti Kannudaiyanpatti and Kalingapatti from the limits of Manapparai Minicipality was published.

2.The following representations have been received against the proposal.

The Chairman, Manaparai Municipality in his letter dated 5.3.74 has agreed to the exclusion of kalingapatti panchayat but has a suggested the retention of certain portions from Kannudaiyanpatti and Usilampatti Panchayats in Manapparai Municipal limits.

The All party committee Manapparai has represented against the exclusion of Usilampatti Kannudaiyanpatti and Kalingapatti from Manapparai Municipality.

The villagers of Kannudaiyanpatti and Usilampatti have represented against the proposal to exclude their villages from the Municipality.

3. The representations are examined below:

1. Chairman, Manaparai Municipality

The intention seems to be to retain the areas economically sound within the Municipality and exclude the other portions from the Municipality. When villages are excluded, the Government have to take into consideration not only the interests of the Municipality but also the interests of the Panchayat and Panchayat Unions as well, The suggestion of the Chairman, Manaparai Municipality to retain certain portions from Kannudaiyanpatti and Usilampatti Panchayats within the Municipal limits and to exclude the other areas is not acceptable.

2. All party committee, Manaparai

It is seen that even after the exclusion of the three villages from the Manaparai Municipality, the residuary Municipality will have all the qualifications which a Municipality must normally possess in respect of population, income etc. To set right the unwieldly jurisdiction of Manaparai Municipality, the Government have proposed to exclude the three villages from that Municipality. Hence, the objection of all party committee is over-ruled.

3. Representation from the public of Kannudaiyanpatti and Usilampatti villages.

Since the Manaparai Municipality is having unwieldly jurisdiction of 21.32 sq.miles, it has been proposed to exclude three villages from the municipal limits. As the exclusion of these villages would result in better administration of the residuary Municipality the objection raised in this regard is over ruled.

4. In the circumstances, the exclusion of the three villages viz., Usilampatti, Kannudaiyanpatti and Kalingapatti from the jurisdiction of Manaparai Municipality referred to in the G.O. first cited is hereby confirmed.

5. The appended notification will be published in English in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette extraordinary dated 22nd April 1974 and in English and Tamil in the Tiruchirapalli District Gazette.

6. The Director of Translations is requested to have the notification translated into Tamil and to forward the same to the Collector of Tiruchirapalli for publication in the Tiruchirapalli District Gazette.
