ORDER:

Over a period of years, while the number of documents registered during every year is increasing, the number of document writers is reducing due to death, cancellation of licence etc. Hence, there is a compelling need to grant licence to more people with necessary educational and technical qualification to cope up with the technology development happening in the Registration Department. A new generation of document writers set up is also required with improved qualification. While prescribing the educational qualification for writing the examination, the Document Writers' Licence Rules requires to be amended. Relatively, the minimum age limit, educational qualification, examination fee, licencing fee, fees for drafting deeds etc., need to be amended.

2. On examining the consolidated amendments proposed by the Inspector General of Registration to the Tamil Nadu Document Writers' Licence Rules, 1982 in the light of the above position, the Government have decided to accept them. Accordingly, the Government direct that the notifications appended to this order be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.
