Body:

Technical approval has been granted with special conditions for the residential plot located in the Kalangudiyiruppu revenue village, within the Udangudi Selection Grade Town Panchayat limits of Thoothukudi district, on the land survey number 38/2A2, covering an area of 0.778 acres, as per the proceedings of the Deputy Director of Town and Country Planning, Thoothukudi, mentioned in reference (1).

Accordingly, an application was submitted as per reference (2). Based on the application, after confirming conditions No. 19(c) and 19(e), and as per Government Order No. 79, Housing and Urban Development Department, dated 04.05.2017, it was informed that a processing fee of Rs. 1000 as per Rule No. 3 of the Land Use Conversion Rules 2017 for unplanned areas, and 3% of the market value of the plot as per Rule No. 9, should be paid to the government account, and further action would be taken.

Subsequently, the fee of Rs. 3,000 (Rupees Three Thousand only) as per Government Rule No. 3 was paid by the applicant to the Town Panchayat, and the market guideline value amount of Rs. 64,500/- as per Rule No. 9 was also paid. The road was handed over to the Town Panchayat as per Udangudi Sub-Registrar Office document No. 3855/2025 dated 20.11.2025, and a tar road and water supply extension pipes have been laid. Further approval has been granted with the conditions of the Town and Country Planning Department. Therefore, approval is hereby granted with the following special conditions:
Conditions:
1. Any person wishing to purchase the property must independently verify the applicant's right to the property. Furthermore, if any other individual claims ownership over it, they may resolve the matter before the appropriate competent court. The Town and Country Planning Department or the Town Panchayat is not the appropriate authority to decide this.
2. Under no circumstances should the plot dimensions, road layouts, dimensions, and public allocation sizes be altered, or the plot further subdivided, contrary to the plan approved by the Town and Country Planning Department, without the prior approval of the Town and Country Planning Department.
3. Under no circumstances should the plot dimensions and road layouts be altered, or the plot further subdivided, contrary to the approved plan, without the prior permission of the Town Panchayat.
4. Any plot shown in the approved plan, except for those selected for public purposes, should be used only for constructing residential houses. It should not be used for constructing shops, warehouses, or non-residential buildings. The areas selected for public amenities should be used only for the purposes indicated in the approved plans.
5. An open space of at least 1.5 meters on each side, or at least 3 meters on one side, must be left between the plot boundary and the building. For plots with a width of up to 10 meters, a side open space of at least 1.5 meters must be left on at least one side.
6. Before constructing buildings on the plots within the layout, permission from the Town Panchayat must be obtained for each building.
7. If the land ownership certificates and documents submitted for consideration are found to be incorrect, or if granting permission for this layout would lead to adverse consequences, the granted permission will be revoked without any prior notice. 8. When selling the plots intended for sale, a copy of this order, along with a copy of the plan approved by the Town and Country Planning Department, must be compulsorily provided to the plot buyers.
9. If, during the audit, any amount payable to the town panchayat regarding the approval of this plot subdivision is found to be outstanding, that amount must be paid by the plot subdivision owner.
