Devolution of Title:

The property in Thanjavur Taluk, Thanjavur Town, Municipal Ward No.6, comprised in T.S.No.1301 an extent of 5 Acres 63 cents and other properties in various survey numbers were absolutely belonged to Mr.Kulanthaivelu Nadar by purchase through a registered Sale Deed executed by Mrs.Sivayogathammal on 27.05.1943. The said Sale Deed was duly registered before the District Registrar-Thanjavur, vide D.No.1541/1943 on 31.05.1943. The Xerox Copy of said Sale Deed is produced herewith and carefully perused by me. As per the recitals of said sale deed the sale consideration said to have been passed. Hence it is legally valid and enforceable in law.

After the purchase said Kulanthaivelu Nadar died intestate leaving behind his legal heirs Mr.Palanisamy Nadar, Mrs.Lakshmi and Mrs.Kamala to succeed his estate. The legal heirs of deceased Kulanthaivelu Nadar namely Mr.Palanisamy Nadar, Mrs.Lakshmi and Mrs.Kamala were entered into a registered Partition in respect of the said property and other their family properties in various survey numbers on 27.02.1982. According to the partition the property in T.S.No.1301 an extent of 5 Acres 63 cents and other properties was allotted to the share of Mr.Palanisamy Nadar through 'A' Schedule property enlisted in the said Partition Deed dated 27.02.1982. The said Partition Deed was duly registered before the Sub Registrar-Karunthattankudi, vide D.No.213/1982 on 01.03.1982. The Xerox Copy of said Partition Deed is produced herewith and carefully perused by me. The said Partition Deed was duly stamped and registered. Hence it is legally valid and enforceable in law. According to the partition the said Mr.Palanisamy Nadar derived absolute title over the said properties by partition. The said Kulanthaivelu Nadar died long back. The death and legal heirship certificate of deceased Kulanthaivelu Nadar are not produced herewith. The said Partition deed was more than 30 years old. If anybody claims any right over the said property in future it will be barred by Law of Limitation.

After the Partition said Palanisamy Nadar died intestate on 11.12.1989 leaving behind his wife P.Jayalakshmi, daughters Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Rathanambal, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi, Mrs.Anu and his son Mr.P.Kulandaivel to succeed his estate. The Xerox Copies of Death and legal heirship certificate of deceased Palanisamy Nadar are produced herewith. His wife P.Jayalakshmi also died intestate on 21.08.2023. The Online Copies of Death and legal heirship certificate of deceased P.Jayalakshmi are produced herewith. After the demise of Palanisamy Nadar and P.Jayalakshmi the above named Mrs.Malathi and others were inherited the said property as absolute owner.

During the course of enjoyment one of the legal heir deceased Palanisamy Nadar namely Mrs.Anu executed a registered Partition Release Deed infavour of Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Rathanambal, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi and Mr.P.Kulandaivel on 30.09.2024. Through this Partition Release Deed she has relinquished her undivided 1/6th share in

T.S.No.1301 an extent of 1.21.5 Hec equivalent to 3 Acres out of 2.27.94 Hec equivalent to 5 Acres 63 cents on Western Part to Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Rathanambal, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi and Mr.P.Kulandaivel on 30.09.2024. The said Partition Release Deed was duly registered before the District Registrar-Thanjavur as D.No.6767/2024 on the same date. The Xerox Copy of Partition Release Deed is produced herewith and carefully perused by me and it is legally valid and enforceable in law. Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Rathanambal, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi and Mr.P.Kulandaivel has got 5/6th share in the said property by inheritance and they have got 1/6th share in the said property through Partition Release Deed dated 30.09.2024. Therefore they have become absolute owners of entire extent of the said property.

During the course of enjoyment Rathanambal died intestate on 02.11.2024 leaving behind her husband Mr.R.Dhanaraj, daughter Mrs.Vidhya and her son Mr.Sivram to succeed his estate. The Online copies of death and legal heirship certificate of deceased Rathinambal are produced herewith. After the demise of Rathinambal the above named Mr.R.Dhanaraj, Mrs.Vidhya and Mr.Sivram were inherited the said property as absolute owner.

In the above mentioned Partition deed dated 27.02.1982 in description of property the survey number has been mistakenly mentioned as T.S.No.130 instead of T.S.No.1301. It is only a typographical error occurred during the preparation of document and it will not vitiate the legal validity of the document as well as the title of the Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi, Mr.P.Kulandairaj, Mrs.Anu, Mr.R.Dhanaraj, Mrs.Vidhya and Mr.Sivram. Therefore Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi, Mr.P.Kulandairaj, Mrs.Anu, Mr.R.Dhanaraj, Mrs.Vidhya and Mr.Sivram have jointly given an affidavit in this regard on 02.12.2024. It is permissible under the Registration Act. The said Affidavit was duly registered before the District Registrar-Thanjavur, vide D.No.234/2024 on the same date. The Xerox Copy of said affidavit is produced herewith and carefully perused by me.

During the course of enjoyment one of the legal heir deceased Rathinambal namely Mr.R.Dhanaraj, Mrs.Vidhya and Mr.Sivram have jointly executed a registered Partition Release Deed infavour of Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi and Mr.P.Kulandaivel on 02.12.2024. Through this Partition Release Deed they have relinquished her undivided 1/5th share in T.S.No.1301 an extent of 1.21.5 Hec equivalent to 3 Acres out of 2.27.94 Hec equivalent to 5 Acres 63 cents on Western Part to Mrs.Malathi, Mrs.Panchami, Mrs.Devi and Mr.P.Kulandaivel on 02.12.2024.
