An India eVisa is the fastest and easiest way of obtaining a visa for India because travelers can submit their applications and supporting documents online. Once the application is approved, travelers receive their eVisa confirmation electronically. A valid visa is required to board the flight. If the visa is expired or doesn't match the traveler's passport information, travelers will not be able to board their flight. Entry to India with an eVisa is supported at 29 airports and five seaports. For more information, visit the government site. Canadian nationals with a background (either serving or retired) in the military, defense, security, police, or who hold an official/diplomatic passport, are not eligible for an eVisa and must contact their nearest Embassy, Consulate, or High Commission to obtain a paper visa. Travelers who withhold this information may be denied entry into India.

Please check with your consultant to verify any and all passport, visa, vaccination, or other entry requirements for each destination you visit or transit, plus any safety or security conditions that may be in effect at time of travel. You may find additional information regarding requirements, please go online at: http://www.travel.gc.ca.

To view more information about the countries you are visiting, go to https://travel.gc.ca/travelling/advisories. Check Entry/Exit requirements for additional information regarding passport and visas.

Please be sure that you have all required travel documents, including passports, visas, and health with you and easily accessible if required in route. Do not pack this information in your checked baggage.

Your trip may include travel to one or more countries where inoculations are required.

If you are not travelling with a Canadian passport, you must first check with the embassies or consulates of the countries intended to travel to learn of the entry and exit requirements to each connecting country and final destination.

Travelling with a damaged passport may cause significant delays at passport checkpoints;
Airlines may prohibit boarding; entry or exit may be denied at border crossings.
Please ensure your passport is in its original condition. Refer to http://www.ppt.gc.ca/ for more information.

URGENT COMMUNICATION THAT NEEDS TO BE ACTIONED BEFORE YOUR RETURN TO CANADA

With the ongoing changes in travel due to covid-19, and the rapidness at which things are changing around us, we are continually adapting to serve the needs of our customers. Although Canada has updated their policies and restrictions within the country, each visiting country/destination may still have their own rules and restrictions in place. Some countries will only permit fully vaccinated travellers, while others require additional forms, screening/testing upon arrival and/or prior to exiting their country. Please refer to the following government site for the latest restrictions and advisories, as information can change at any given time:
Travel Advisory Canada

Recommended check in time prior to departure is minimum 3 hours for international flights. All airlines have strict cut off times for check in and late check in may result in denied boarding.
Tickets are non-refundable, and are non-transferable/non-endorsable.
Reissue/changes are subject to fare rule conditions, applicable fees and may result in a higher fare.
Please ask your consultant for complete details of the pricing regulations
Flights are subject to schedule changes and/or cancellation at the airline's discretion.
You must reconfirm your flights with the airline 24 hours prior to departure.
